The Paragraph Pulpit.
BY EDWIN A. RUMBALL.
Jesus never tells men that they need a Savior. If the human need for a Savior was as important as Paul makes out, it certainly seems strange that Jesus never emphasized it. When he tells the people to be as perfect as G. d (Matt. 5:48) he assumes that we possess all the means necessary for salvation. Otherwise, he mocks us. Is it not mockery to tell a sinner that he is perfect? No! I thank God that true religion cannot do that. It is a humane help not to help, because he knew that mankind did not need help.

True religion calls for every man's best, demands character, not the acceptance of some one else's best. "Then your religion cannot make a murderer mount the scaffold happy and comforted because he has been washed in the blood of the Lamb?" No! I thank God that true religion cannot do that. It is a humane help not to help, because he knew that mankind did not need help.

dren of Solon is visiting her parents,

Rev. Nathan D. Center, aged 85 years, one of the oldest members of the Maine Methodist conference died Sunday at his home in Westbrook. He was a son of Isaac and Sarah (Kilgore) Center. He was born in Sweden, and completed his education in that town.

He was a carriage maker by trade and entered that line of work in the city of Bridford. He was made a member of the Maine Conference in 1856 and was actively connected with it until 1886 when he met with a painful accident in East Poland, where he was located. His injuries were so serious that he was placed on the superannuated list. He has been a resident of Westbrook for the past 12 years. His death was due to heart failure which was caused by a bad cold contracted last spring.

The first charge assigned to Mr. Center and those following are as follows: 1857-8 West Ogunquit; 1859-60 Newfield; 1861-2 Norway; 1863-4 Standish; 1865 Newfield; 1866 Goodwills Mill; 1867-8 superannuated; 1869 superannuated; 1870-1 located; 1872-3 North Yarmouth; 1874-5 Fryeburg; 1876 Bethel; 1877-8 Richmond; 1879-81 South Waterford; 1882 Harpswell; 1883-4 Rumford; 1885 East Poland; 1886 to 1907 superan-nated.

Mr. Center is survived by a wife and two sons, Fred N., of Portland, and Frank H., of Manchester, N. H., and a daughter, Mrs. Harold Knowlton, of Watertown, Mass. Mr. Center was twice married, his first wife being a resident of Bridford and his second a native of Fryeburg.

To Check Reckless Driving.
A determined effort to check reckless automobilists in Massachusetts has been begun by the Safe Roads Automobile association, which has announced the offer of various rewards for evidence against offending owners and drivers.

In a statement in connection with its offers, the association submits that in Massachusetts alone there were 92 automobile accidents in the twenty-six days from June 14 to July 10. Nine foot passengers were killed and thirty-four injured in those twenty-six days—more fatalities than occurred in the United States navy during the Spanish war. There were also forty-nine collisions between automobiles and other vehicles during the same period, where the damage was confined to the machines.

In view of these facts, the Safe Roads association thinks something radical must be done to stop reckless driving, and rewards of $50 each are offered for evidence of attempt by autoist to get away after an accident; for evidence of operation of auto driver whose license has been suspended or revoked; or the use of an auto when its certificate is suspended or revoked; or using an auto without its proper number displayed.

These rewards apply only to offences in the state of Massachusetts, but a similar association and similar effort in Maine might catch some of the Bay state chaps who run so recklessly over our Maine hills and valleys, and might also catch an occasional reckless cuss who lives nearer home—[Exchange].

REMEDY FOR SEASICKNESS.
Maine Man Discovers Way to Cure It as Well as Carsickness.

Now that it is the season for travel, when nearly everyone takes at least a short water trip, here is a remedy for seasickness that is invaluable. It has been used by many travelers who invariably suffered from seasickness until they tried this remedy.

As soon as the vessel starts, take from fifteen to thirty drops of Neuralgic Anodyne in a little warm water sweetered, repeating the dose every thirty minutes until the stomach is settled and the nerves quieted. No matter how rough the ocean, or how the ship may roll and toss, Neuralgic Anodyne will give relief in seasick-ness.

This remedy is invaluable for all nerve aches or pains, curing neuralgia, headache, toothache, etc. when used externally. A large-sized bottle costs but 25 cents and is sold everywhere, under guarantee to cost nothing unless it gives satisfaction. Made

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Oxford Pomona Grange.
The Oxford Pomona Grange met Tuesday at the hall of Bear Mountain Grange, a large number of members in attendance from Norway, South Paris, Crooked River, Lakeside and Sweden Granges.

The forenoon was occupied by private business of the order. The afternoon was an open meeting and was devoted mostly to a discussion of the advantages of silos, ensilage, various methods of packing silos with second crop clover and with sweet corn fodder. A question as to the best way to use second crop clover was offered by Arthur Chubburns of North Bridgton. Master Edward of Paris Grange offered some remarks in reply to questions giving his experiences for a number of years. Among those who had used clover for ensilage the consensus of opinion was in favor of using it quite green without much curing, and some stated that experiments of packing clover into the silo in a wet condition produced ensilage of very excellent quality.

Upon the question of feeding corn ensilage on the favor of butter made from the cream of cows thus fed, W. K. Hamlin, proprietor of the Waterford Creamery, said the use of ensilage for dairy cows was not objectionable if it was fed at the right time. He would not feed the cows because it was important to avoid all causes of imparting the flavor of the feed ration to the milk, and if the cow was eating her ration while being milked he believed there was danger of an offensive quality being imparted to the milk and cream.

Other speakers, who gave opinions based on experiments for a number of years, expressed sentiments decidedly in favor of ensilage feeding and gave some interesting points of the advantages of packing silos with whole or finely cut stalks, the balance of opinion being in favor of cut fodder as it packed closer and kept in better condition in silo.

The speaking was by brothers, Edward, King of South Paris; Sanders, Charles Hamlin, Abbott, Haggood, W. K. Hamlin, Walter C. Noble (butter maker at Waterford Creamery) of Waterford; Brown, Buck, of Norway; Alden of Sweden and one or two others.

Preceding the discussion there were interesting readings and recitations by Lewis Briggs of Crooked River Grange and Alice Hamlin of Bear Mountain Grange.

Excellent music was furnished at intervals by Walter Noble, cornet, Edgar Stone, flute, and Jennie Hamlin, piano.

The next meeting is announced to be held with Crooked River Grange at September 11th, the second Tuesday in September.

The dinner, furnished by Bear Mountain Grange in its spacious banquet hall, was, as usual in that grange, of the highest order of excellence, and served with much skill by a corps of fine looking young ladies.

Mrs. W. S. Hollowell of Philadelphia, recently at Oak Lodge for a few days, has returned to her home.

Miss Monroe of Philadelphia, daughter of Josiah Monroe, a native and former resident here, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noble.

H. Goodenough, chief engineer state board of health of Massachusetts of Roxbury and C. D. Lyford of Boston were guests of Eugene and Mrs. Nelson for a week, recently.

Summer guests at Wm. Haines popular house are Fred Saurborn and wife, E. J. Cooley, wife and son, Plainfield, W. J. Healy Waterbury, Brooklyn, N. Y., and A. J. Clarke, Portland.

Ward Moore, wife and son are visiting at John Albertson's, a birthplace of Mrs. Monroe. Mr. Monroe is a native of this village where he visited during his youth and early manhood, but has been in Waltham a number of years, where he is engaged in business.

The Bythville Herald of late date has an item of special interest to the friends of Edward C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nelson: E. C. Nelson and family moved this week to Helena, where Mr. Nelson has been managing one of the large saw mills of the place. While this promotion of Mr. Nelson is a handsome acknowledgment of his sterling business qualifications, their many friends regret their leaving Bythville. Mrs. Nelson is an excellent musician and will be very much missed in social circles.

Alice M. Hamlin, daughter of W. K. Hamlin, has been appointed to the honored position of preceptress and teacher of oratory and gymnastics in the Maine Wesleyan Seminary and Woman's College at Kent's Hill. Miss Hamlin graduated from there in 1905, since which she has taken courses of advanced study and practice in the Boston University, Emerson College of Oratory and Pose Gymnasium, Boston. Her engagement at Kent's Hill will coincide with the ensuing term in September.

Rev. Olaf Tandberg and wife of Berlin, N. H., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Watson a few days. Mrs. Tandberg, known in former years as a popular writer for the press, and as an able and earnest advocate of temperance and woman's suffrage in Kansas, Minnesota, Washington, D. C., and later in Maine, spent the years of her childhood and youth in this village, and is happily renewing her acquaintance with persons, places and scenes dear to her heart by her former association. Besides her years of service in the field of reform she was identified with the cause of popular education as a teacher of youth. Mr. Tandberg is pastor of the Universalist church at Berlin, N. H.

On Friday evening last was an interesting reunion of the five living daughters of the late Albert Stanwood, whose widow still lives here. The meeting was at the residence of Eugene and Lottie (Stanwood) Nelson, oldest of the five. The others present were Mrs. Kate Hardy and husband of Boston, now residing here with Mrs. Stanwood, the mother; Mrs. Florence Noble and husband, Frank Noble, and sons, Walter C. and Harold, and daughter Marion; Mrs. Emma Murphy, wife of A. M. Murphy of Green Bay, Wis., and four children, Alice, Richard, Donald and Simon; Mrs. Irving Bell and husband. Other immediate relatives were Mrs. E. C. Nelson and two young sons of Helena, A. few invited guests were present in the evening. The party was quite in the nature of a social and musicale. The musical selections were played by Edgar W. Stone, flute playing last violin part, Walter C. Noble, cornet, and Jennie Hamlin, accompanist, who performed several pleasing numbers selected from a popular new opera, "The Red Mill." Two fine solos from the opera of "Der Freyschutz" were played on cornet by Irving Bell, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Nelson. Several interesting games were a feature of the entertainment in which paper and pencil and good guessing faculties were principal requisites.

The concert of the Enterpean Quartet of Boston on Tuesday evening at Grange Hall was one of the most delightful entertainments ever offered for the pleasure of our citizens. The manager and leading member of the troupe, a native and life-long resident, Ethel Maude Monroe, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Monroe, having for a number of years been earnestly pursuing course of musical study at the N. E. Conservatory of Music in Boston, with a view to be educated for professional life, and having given many evidences of vocal talent of superior quality and of latent musical capacity. Her friends have watched her progress as a student with very fond interest and with sincere hopes of her future success as an artist. It is not too much to say that Miss Monroe's debut as a public singer in her own home was not disappointing but that her vocal conditions of the pieces sung by her in her first concert, and the pleasure experienced by her delighted audience, attested by rapturous and continued applause and repeated encores, have given evidence that her career has been wisely chosen, and the ambition by which she has been stimulated towards future attainment in her art been discreetly cherished. The three young ladies associated with Miss Monroe, also students in Boston schools of vocal art-culture, are well advanced in their respective studies and exhibit a high degree of talent for the chosen role of each. The remarkable proficiency of Miss Snow, as a violinist, the wonderful piano playing of Miss Amstein and the exquisite renditions of some games in the repertoire of Miss Clute have gained for them from their friends here a sentiment of deep respect and admiration. Come again girls! The program was as follows:

Piano solo—Caprice Espagnol.....Miss Clute

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The regular price is fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake. Just remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

IT TAKES BUT A FEW DAYS TO CURE SPOTS

relief, the selectmen, who administer the poor laws, the directors and officers of the private asylums, the neighborhood workers, the neighborhood workers, the district nurses, the workers for children, for fallen girls, those in charge of the public hospitals, insane asylums, institutions for the feeble minded, the deaf, and the blind, the judges, the probation officers and all others interested in such matters, will be at the conference, besides a large number of public spirited citizens.

The keepers of the various almshouses have a chance to compare notes as to ways of economizing and of securing better care for those with them. Men from all over the State are interested in the question of the indeterminate sentence. How has it succeeded where it has been tried? What are the objections raised against it? People want to hear both sides impartially presented.

The probation work has been a great success in many cities where it has been tried. What are the objections to the extension of this work to the State? The Child Labor problem has aroused national attention. Both sides of this question should be laid before the public.

The philanthropic workers feel that they can make the work more efficient by learning from each other's experience, feeling that all interested in philanthropic work in the State, should know each other better so that the co-operation may be closer.

HARRISON.

Another Summer School Camp. There is quite a probability that another summer school and camp will be established in South Harrison as Dr. Pierson S. Page, Principal of the Phillips School, Andover, Mass., is negotiating with E. D. Gray for some two acres of land on his shore front, and it is quite probable that the trade will be made. The doctor is running a school and camp in Raymond this summer, and if he buys the South Harrison property this will be transferred there next summer and will probably be carried on on an enlarged scale. The location is a fine one.

Work is progressing well on J. H. Randall's new buildings. The barn and stable are nearly completed and the cellar is all ready for the house. These buildings will probably be the finest set in Harrison.

A great abundance of rain has fallen since August began, 2.41 inches being the fall for the first four days. The day weather for the last two weeks has been almost unprecedented, and much upland hay is still standing. During one whole week many did not succeed in securing any, and those that did had a peculiar knack of making hay when there was no sun. We are hoping for better things. The meadows are very wet at present.

The schools at the village and in South Harrison will begin on Monday, August 12th, and all the others on Monday, August 26th, unless special notice is given to the contrary. The teachers will mostly be the same as in the summer, although some changes will be made. Ruth M. Buck has resigned her position in the South Harrison school and Beulah Towne of Oxford has been engaged to take her place. Mrs. Alice Wilbur has resigned her position in the Brackett school and her successor has not yet been engaged.

Harrison, especially Maple Ridge and South Harrison, was visited by a series of powerful showers last Friday afternoon. Lightning entered the cellar of James Thomes probably by way of the water pipes. Its marks were plainly to be seen in places but it did no damage except to put the telephone out of commission. Several of the poles on the telephone line were struck and some of them were slightly shattered. Homer Libby, son of Herbert Libby, received quite a shock while near the telephone wire in the backyard at home. He would have fallen to the ground if his father had not caught him and it was several minutes before he came to sufficiently to speak. Several telephones were burned out, this being the third time that this has happened during the present summer.

Abbie Smith and Nancy Hobbs are spending August at Ocean Park.

Callie Thomes died quite suddenly at her residence here, Monday afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Wakely of the Free Baptist church went to Massachusetts, Monday, to officiate at the wedding of his son. He and his wife will visit Ocean Park before their return.

Rev. Mr. Flint and wife of Deering with Rev. Mr. Davis of the Congregational church are camping on the shore of Long lake. Mr. Flint preached at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon in exchange with the pastor.

F. W. Ricker moved into his new house August 6th. C. W. Jackson has been occupying his for about two weeks. Both are fine buildings and are fitted up in modern style. Both are to have rents fitted up in the second story for the residence of the owners. Both will probably be lighted by electricity when Summer Whitney installs his dynamo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ricker, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ricker, their daughter and Caroline Shorey of Lisbon Falls spent Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 3d and 4th, at their cottages on Long lake. While on their way in their steam launch Maye, under full speed, C. F. Ricker had a stroke and landed a two-pound salmon. One thing which was noticeable was the fact that the launch was running nearly six times as fast.

The sale held at the Congregational vestry Wednesday afternoon and evening was well attended and very successful. Those presiding at the tables were:—Apron table, Mercy Gray; white table, Jessie Ricker; pillow table, Nellie Fogg and Luella Dudley; fancy table, Lizzie Doughty and Cora Briggs; food table, Gertrude Blake and Mrs. W. H. Bailey; home-made candies, Ada Flint and Cassie Pierce; ice cream, Mrs. Ada Chapman assisted by Elsie Burnham and Annie Furrington. The ladies of the committee, Emma Kilbourne, Jessie Ricker and Mrs. W. H. Briggs, are to be congratulated on a very pleasant occasion and the substantial sum of $84 received.
